Colorado Trial Lawyers Care Donates $16,000 to Help a Food Bank Impacted by Furloughed Workers

Yesterday, Colorado Trial Lawyers Care contributed $16,000 to the Food Bank of the Rockies to replenish the supplies it used to feed those affected by the government shutdown and the thousands of people served every day.

This donation provides 64,000 meals to those in need!

If you have a chance, the Food Bank of the Rockies also needs volunteers! Shifts are Monday through Friday from 8:45 a.m. to 12 p.m. and 12:15 p.m. to 3:30 p.m. The food bank also has Saturday opportunities which fill up quickly. CTLA plans to coordinate a member volunteer day in the future!

About Colorado Trial Lawyers Care (CTLC)

CTLC started with a $10,000 bequest from the estate of CTLA Past President Dan Patterson. Donations to CTLC give members of the Colorado Trial Lawyers Association (CTLA) the ability to bring together resources to help those in need. Whether the situation involves a natural disaster such as flooding, victims of a crime, the need for legal assistance or other hardships, CTLC can take action and quickly provide support.

CTLC is a 501(c)(3) tax exempt organization. Contributions are fully tax deductible as a charitable contribution. EIN # 46-1968300
